

General Welfare First Time Driver's Education Assistance Program

The Delaware Nation General Welfare First Time Driver's Education Assistance Program is pleased to offer, enrolled Delaware Nation tribal citizens ages 15-19, an opportunity to receive assistance with the cost of an accredited Driver's Education course. Applicants may receive a one-time assistance up to $500 towards the cost of classes.

REQUIREMENTS

- Must be an enrolled Delaware Nation citizen age 15-19
- Must be a first-time driver and not yet received state learner's permit or driver's license
- Must participate in an accredited driver's education course

RESPONSIBILITIES

- The student/parent is responsible for completing and submitting the application and supportive documents to this office.
- The student is responsible for scheduling and completing the driver's education courses and testing.
- Please allow 10-14 days for processing. Once a check is received it will be mailed to the vendor with a copy of the submitted invoice. The tribal citizen can request the check be mailed directly to them if payment in hand is required at the time of services. Reimbursement for an accredited online course is available with a paid receipt and itemized invoice dated after October 1, 2023. It is the parent/student's responsibility to verify if the online course is accredited before payment.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

If you fail to secure the documents listed below your application will be placed on pending status.

- Completed and signed application (applicants 18 and over must sign the application)
- Delaware Nation enrollment card
- Invoice for accredited driver's education course (any charges exceeding $500 will be the responsibility of the tribal citizen)
- If applying for reimbursement, a paid receipt and itemized invoice dated October 1, 2023 or later

Applications may be submitted to socialservices@delawarenation-nsn.gov, by mail, fax or in-person at the Delaware Nation complex.
